Butte Countywide Homeless Continuum of Care

DATE: January 4, 2021

MEMORANDUM FOR: HMIS/CES Committee Members and HMIS Participating Agencies

FROM: Staci Parisi, First Chairperson HMIS/CES Committee and Health and Human Services Program Analyst, Senior
Butte County Department of Employment and Social Services

SUBJECT: Implementation of updates to the Butte Countywide Homeless Continuum of Care
HMIS Policies and Procedures Manual (Latest Revision adopted 11-16-2020)

The Butte Countywide Homeless Continuum of Care HMIS Policies and Procedures Manual can be found on the HMIS/CES INFO page on the Butte CoC Website <http://www.buttehomelesscoc.com/> or by clicking this link: Butte CoC - HMIS Policies and Procedures

In accordance with the latest revision of the HMIS Policies and Procedures (adopted 11-16-2020), effective immediately, Contributing HMIS Organizations (CHO's) shall implement the following practices:

1. Post the Butte Countywide HMIS Public Notice so that is viewable to all Clients. The HMIS Public Notice can be found on the HMIS/CES INFO page on the Butte CoC website <http://www.buttehomelesscoc.com/> or by clicking this link: Countywide HMIS Public Notice
2. Post the Butte Countywide Continuum of Care Privacy Notice on its Agency's website. The HMIS Privacy Notice can be found on the HMIS/CES INFO page on the Butte CoC website <http://www.buttehomelesscoc.com/> or by clicking this link: Countywide CoC Privacy Notice
Please add your Agency's information in the highlighted sections of the HMIS Privacy Notice and post on your Agency's website.
3. CHO's no longer need to obtain a signed HMIS Client Acknowledgement of Data Entry Form. Consent of the Client for data collection in HMIS is inferred from the circumstances of the collection.
4. HUD gives HMIS Partner Agencies the authority for the following uses and disclosures without the need to obtain Client consent as long as they are clearly articulated in the Butte Countywide CoC Privacy Notice. Uses and disclosures for the purpose of:
 - Providing or coordinating services to an individual;
 - Creating de-identified client records from PPI;
 - Carrying out administrative functions (legal, audit, personnel, oversight and management functions); and
 - Functions related to payment or reimbursement for services.

Uses and disclosures not listed in the Butte Countywide CoC Privacy Notice require the Client's consent.

EXCEPTIONS to data entry and sharing within the HMIS:

- 1. Unaccompanied Minor Youth - The HMIS cannot be used to share information about unaccompanied minor youth outside of the originating agency. Thus, End Users cannot share any Client information of unaccompanied minor youth. For the purposes of this policy, minor youth are defined as youth under 18.
- 2. Domestic Violence (DV) Service Providers – DV Service Providers are prohibited from entering Client PPI into HMIS, and must use a comparable database.

Butte Countywide Homeless Information Systems (HMIS) Public Notice

We collect personal information directly from you to:

- 1. Best connect you with the services you need;*
- 2. Better understand the needs of homeless persons;*
- 3. Improve planning to eliminate homelessness; and*
- 4. Improve services for homeless persons.*

The only people who will be allowed to see your information are HMIS trained staff for homeless service providers who have agreed to keep your information confidential. Additional details regarding data collection and sharing are discussed in our Privacy Notice. If you would like a copy of our Privacy Notice, please ask.

Butte Countywide Continuum of Care Privacy Notice

Adopted November 16, 2020

A. Scope of Notice

1. This notice describes the privacy policy and practices of Butte Countywide Homeless Continuum of Care (Butte CoC) and [Name of Homeless Organization], a Contributing HMIS Organization (CHO). Our main office is at [Address, email/web address, telephone of Homeless Organization].
2. A Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) is a software system used to collect data on the housing and services provided to homeless individuals and families and persons at risk of homelessness. All homeless assistance programs that are a part of the Butte CoC must participate in the HMIS, and are called Contributing HMIS Organizations (CHOs). CHO's are required to collect universal data elements from all clients, including Protected Personal Information (PPI).
3. The policy and practices in this notice cover the processing of PPI HMIS for clients of [Name of Homeless Organization].
4. Protected Personal information (PPI) is any information we maintain about a client that:
 - a. allows identification of an individual directly or indirectly
 - b. can be manipulated by a reasonably foreseeable method to identify a specific individual or
 - c. can be linked with other available information to identify a specific client
5. When this notice refers to personal information, it means PPI.
6. All personal information that we maintain is covered by the policy and practices described in this privacy notice. [if programs provided by your agency have additional privacy requirements, please add that information here: for example “ Personal information that the medical clinic collects and maintains is covered by a different privacy policy”.]
7. We adopted this policy because of standards for HMIS issued by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. We intend our policy and practices to be consistent with those standards. See 69 Federal Register 45888 (July 30, 2004).
8. This notice tells our clients, our staff, and others how we process personal information. We follow the policy and practices described in this notice.
9. We may amend this notice and change our policy or practices at any time. Amendments may affect personal information that we obtained before the effective date of the amendment.
10. We give a written copy of this privacy notice to any individual who asks.
11. A copy of this notice can be found on the Butte CoC website at www.buttehomelesscoc.com

B. Data Collection and Purpose

1. We collect personal information only when appropriate to provide services or for another specific purpose of our organization or when required by law. We may collect information for these purposes:
 - a. to provide or coordinate services to clients
 - b. to locate other programs that may be able to assist clients
 - c. for functions related to payment or reimbursement from others for services that we provide
 - d. to operate our organization, including administrative functions such as legal, audits, personnel, oversight, and management functions
 - e. to comply with government reporting obligations
 - f. when required by law
2. We only use lawful and fair means to collect personal information.
3. We normally collect personal information with the knowledge or consent of our clients. If you seek our assistance and provide us with personal information, we assume that you consent to the collection of information as described in this notice.
4. We may also get information about you from other CHOs within the Butte CoC.
5. We post a sign at our intake desk or other location explaining the reasons we ask for personal information. The sign says:

We collect personal information directly from you to:

- 1. Best connect you with the services you need;*
- 2. Better understand the needs of homeless persons;*
- 3. Improve planning to eliminate homelessness; and*
- 4. Improve services for homeless persons.*

The only people who will be allowed to see your information are HMIS trained staff for homeless service providers who have agreed to keep your information confidential.

Additional details regarding data collection and sharing are discussed in our Privacy Notice. If you would like a copy of our Privacy Notice, please ask.

C. Permitted Uses and Disclosures

1. We use or disclose personal information for activities described in this part of the notice. We may or may not make any of these uses or disclosures with your information. We assume that you consent to the use or disclosure of your personal information for the purposes described here and for other uses and disclosures that we determine to be compatible with these uses or disclosures:
 - a. to connect individuals to appropriate resources or services, for housing prioritization purposes, and for determining an individual's progress in programs or services
 - b. for functions related to payment or reimbursement for services

- c. to carry out administrative functions such as legal, audits, personnel, oversight, and management functions
- d. to create de-identified (anonymous) information that can be used for research and statistical purposes without identifying clients
- e. when required by law to the extent that use or disclosure complies with and is limited to the requirements of the law
- f. to avert a serious threat to health or safety if
 - (1) we believe that the use or disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of an individual or the public, and
 - (2) the use or disclosure is made to a person reasonably able to prevent or lessen the threat, including the target of the threat
- g. to report about an individual we reasonably believe to be a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence to a governmental authority (including a social service or protective services agency) authorized by law to receive reports of abuse, neglect or domestic violence
 - (1) under any of these circumstances:
 - (a) where the disclosure is required by law and the disclosure complies with and is limited to the requirements of the law
 - (b) if the individual agrees to the disclosure, or
 - (c) to the extent that the disclosure is expressly authorized by statute or regulation, and
 - (I) we believe the disclosure is necessary to prevent serious harm to the individual or other potential victims, or
 - (II) if the individual is unable to agree because of incapacity, a law enforcement or other public official authorized to receive the report represents that the PPI for which disclosure is sought is not intended to be used against the individual and that an immediate enforcement activity that depends upon the disclosure would be materially and adversely affected by waiting until the individual is able to agree to the disclosure.
 - and
 - (2) when we make a permitted disclosure about a victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence, we will promptly inform the individual who is the victim that a disclosure has been or will be made, except if:
 - (a) we, in the exercise of professional judgment, believe informing the individual would place the individual at risk of serious harm, or
 - (b) we would be informing a personal representative (such as a family member or friend), and we reasonably believe the personal representative is responsible for the abuse, neglect or other injury, and that informing the personal representative would not be in the best interests of the individual as we determine in the exercise of professional judgment.
- h. for academic research purposes
 - (1) conducted by an individual or institution that has a formal relationship with the CHO if the research is conducted either:
 - (a) by an individual employed by or affiliated with the organization for use in a research project conducted under a written research agreement approved in writing by a designated CHO program administrator (other than the individual conducting the research), or

- (b) by an institution for use in a research project conducted under a written research agreement approved in writing by a designated CHO program administrator.
- and
- (2) any written research agreement:
 - (a) must establish rules and limitations for the processing and security of PPI in the course of the research
 - (b) must provide for the return or proper disposal of all PPI at the conclusion of the research
 - (c) must restrict additional use or disclosure of PPI, except where required by law
 - (d) must require that the recipient of data formally agree to comply with all terms and conditions of the agreement, and
 - (e) is not a substitute for approval (if appropriate) of a research project by an Institutional Review Board, Privacy Board or other applicable human subjects protection institution.
 - i. to a law enforcement official for a law enforcement purpose (if consistent with applicable law and standards of ethical conduct) under any of these circumstances:
 - (1) in response to a lawful court order, court-ordered warrant, subpoena or summons issued by a judicial officer, or a grand jury subpoena
 - (2) if the law enforcement official makes a written request for PPI that:
 - (a) is signed by a supervisory official of the law enforcement agency seeking the PPI
 - (b) states that the information is relevant and material to a legitimate law enforcement investigation
 - (c) identifies the PPI sought
 - (d) is specific and limited in scope to the extent reasonably practicable in light of the purpose for which the information is sought, and
 - (e) states that de-identified information could not be used to accomplish the purpose of the disclosure.
 - (3) if we believe in good faith that the PPI constitutes evidence of criminal conduct that occurred on our premises
 - (4) in response to an oral request for the purpose of identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person and the PPI disclosed consists only of name, address, date of birth, place of birth, Social Security Number, and distinguishing physical characteristics, or
 - (5) if
 - (a) the official is an authorized federal official seeking PPI for the provision of protective services to the President or other persons authorized by 18 U.S.C. 3056, or to foreign heads of state or other persons authorized by 22 U.S.C. 2709(a)(3), or for the conduct of investigations authorized by 18 U.S.C. 871 and 879 (threats against the President and others), and
 - (b) the information requested is specific and limited in scope to the extent reasonably practicable in light of the purpose for which the information is sought.
- and
- j. to comply with government reporting obligations for homeless management information systems and for oversight of compliance with homeless management information system requirements.

2. Before we make any use or disclosure of your personal information that is not described here, we seek your consent first.

D. Client Control Over Data

1. You may inspect and have a copy of your personal information that we maintain. We will offer to explain any information that you may not understand.
2. We will consider a request from you for correction of inaccurate or incomplete personal information that we maintain about you. If we agree that the information is inaccurate or incomplete, we may delete it or we may choose to mark it as inaccurate or incomplete and to supplement it with additional information.
3. To inspect, get a copy of, or ask for correction of your information, ask an agency staff member for assistance, contact this organization at [Address, email/web address, telephone of Homeless Organization], or email ButteCoC@buttecounty.net.
4. We may deny your request for inspection or copying of personal information if:
 - a. the information was compiled in reasonable anticipation of litigation or comparable proceedings
 - b. the information is about another individual (other than a health care provider or homeless provider)
 - c. the information was obtained under a promise or confidentiality (other than a promise from a health care provider or homeless provider) and if the disclosure would reveal the source of the information, or
 - d. disclosure of the information would be reasonably likely to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual.
5. If we deny a request for access or correction, we will explain the reason for the denial. We will also include, as part of the personal information that we maintain, documentation of the request and the reason for the denial.
6. We may reject repeated or harassing requests for access or correction.

E. Data Quality

1. We collect only personal information that is relevant to the purposes for which we plan to use it. To the extent necessary for those purposes, we seek to maintain only personal information that is accurate, complete, and timely.
2. We have a plan to dispose of personal information not in current use seven years after the information was created or last changed. As an alternative to disposal, we may choose to remove identifiers from the information.
3. We may keep information for a longer period if required to do so by statute, regulation, contract, or other requirement.

F. Complaints and Accountability

1. We accept and consider questions or complaints about our privacy and security policies and practices. You can complain about our privacy and security policies by writing to: Butte County DESS Housing and Homeless Branch, 202 Mira Loma Drive, Oroville, CA 95965 or e-mailing ButteCoC@buttecounty.net. You will receive a response in writing postmarked or date stamped within five working days if a valid email address or mailing address is provided in the written complaint.
2. All members of our staff (including employees, volunteers, affiliates, contractors and associates) are required to comply with this privacy notice. Each staff member must receive and acknowledge receipt of a copy of this privacy notice.
