Before Starting the CoC Application

You must submit all three of the following parts in order for us to consider your Consolidated Application complete:

1. the CoC Application,
2. the CoC Priority Listing, and
3. all the CoC's project applications that were either approved and ranked, or rejected.

As the Collaborative Applicant, you are responsible for reviewing the following:

1. The FY 2021 CoC Program Competition Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) for specific application and program requirements.
2. The FY 2021 CoC Application Detailed Instructions which provide additional information and guidance for completing the application.
3. All information provided to ensure it is correct and current.
4. Responses provided by project applicants in their Project Applications.
5. The application to ensure all documentation, including attachment are provided.

Your CoC Must Approve the Consolidated Application before You Submit It
- 24 CFR 578.9 requires you to compile and submit the CoC Consolidated Application for the FY 2021 CoC Program Competition on behalf of your CoC.

- 24 CFR 578.9(b) requires you to obtain approval from your CoC before you submit the Consolidated Application into e-snaps.

Answering Multi-Part Narrative Questions

Many questions require you to address multiple elements in a single text box. Number your responses to correspond with multi-element questions using the same numbers in the question. This will help you organize your responses to ensure they are complete and help us to review and score your responses.

Attachments

Questions requiring attachments to receive points state, "You Must Upload an Attachment to the 4B. Attachments Screen." Only upload documents responsive to the questions posed—including other material slows down the review process, which ultimately slows down the funding process. Include a cover page with the attachment name.

- Attachments must match the questions they are associated with—if we do not award points for evidence you upload and associate with the wrong question, this is not a valid reason for you to appeal HUD's funding determination.

- We must be able to read the date and time on attachments requiring system-generated dates and times, (e.g., a screenshot displaying the time and date of the public posting using your desktop calendar; screenshot of a webpage that indicates date and time).

	NOFO Section VII.B.1.a.(2)

Describe in the field below how your CoC:
1.	communicated the invitation process annually to solicit new members to join the CoC;
2.	ensured effective communication with individuals with disabilities, including the availability of accessible electronic formats;
3.	conducted outreach to ensure persons experiencing homelessness or formerly homeless persons are encouraged to join your CoC; and

(limit 2,000 characters)

1. The CoC invites new members to join through a variety of strategies: open invitation, solicitation at various agency meeting within the community, annual membership drive and through phone contacts at the Lead Agency. Annually, the CoC's membership drive invites community members to join the CoC. During the drive, mass emails are shared with the community through the CoC list serv, as well as through social media. Specific invitations are sent to targeted organizations or persons identified as significant partners to CoC endeavors.
2. Invitations for membership are communicated verbally to persons at public meetings, through social media, on public websites and via word of mouth.
3. Hundreds of community partners are included in a mass email distribution from the CoC for the annual membership invitation; this invitation is a request for additional membership. The Local Disability Action Center is one of the partners that are specifically invited and are asked to share the membership invitation with their program participants. Membership forms are available in hard copy or electronically and can also be submitted verbally.
4. CoC service providers and partners are regularly asked to recommend persons to the CoC Council who have lived experiences; providers have an understanding of the capacity of their consumers and can provide additional details to consumers on why their participation in the CoC is important. The CoC maintains a homeless/previously homeless member on the council to advocate for the target population.

With respect to addressing equity, the CoC has requested technical assistance to understand how we can improve our outreach to culturally specific communities when there may not be organizations in our community that provide homeless services targeted to a specific community.

1B-3.	CoC’s Strategy to Solicit/Consider Opinions on Preventing and Ending Homelessness.
NOFO Section VII.B.1.a.(3)

Describe in the field below how your CoC:

1.	solicited and considered opinions from a broad array of organizations and individuals that have knowledge of homelessness, or an interest in preventing and ending homelessness;
2.	communicated information during public meetings or other forums your CoC uses to solicit public information; and
3.	took into consideration information gathered in public meetings or forums to address improvements or new approaches to preventing and ending homelessness.

1. The CoC coordinates several regional planning and engagement groups to gather input and information from various stakeholders across the Continuum. CoC leads have made presentations at city council meetings, at board of supervisor’s meetings and at multiple community forums to promote homeless services, homeless funding, advocacy efforts, and to gather information about the target population and their needs. The CoC has solicited the opinions and buy-in from media outlets to promote homeless services and to engage the general public in the activities of the CoC and how persons may provide input. The CoC Coordinator regularly networks with other jurisdictions and organizations that are vested in preventing homelessness, bringing new ideas and opportunities to the CoC.
2. The CoC Coordinator regularly represents the Continuum at city and county public meetings, local coalitions and ad hoc committees. The CoC Director and Council President also present CoC information and ask for public input at different venues, ensuring that the general public has a vested interest in providing potential solutions to the homeless crisis. At each public meeting, information on CoC initiatives and directives is shared and the public is provided an opportunity to provide input.
3. The CoC Council is a large and diverse representation of the Continuum and each member brings forth concepts, solutions and ideas to the planning and decision making process that represent a varying degree of experience and diversity in homeless matters; council members gather this information through community engagement efforts and daily interactions with the public and other partners.
CoC leads take opportunities to transfer knowledge from community engagement efforts throughout the jurisdiction to the CoC Council meeting where advocacy and policy work take shape. At the Council meetings, any individual is able to present, ask questions or advocate for specific policies, approaches or activities that may alleviate the impacts of homelessness.

1B-4.	Public Notification for Proposals from Organizations Not Previously Funded.
	NOFO Section VII.B.1.a.(4)

Describe in the field below how your CoC notified the public:

4.	about how your CoC would determine which project applications it would submit to HUD for funding; and
5.	how your CoC effectively communicated with individuals with disabilities, including making information accessible in electronic formats.

1. The local CoC competition announcement was posted on the CoC website; the Memo was also sent out to CoC partners via an email blast which reached hundreds of service providers, advocates and community members.
2. The CoC competition announcement provided information about the source of funding, the process to submit a new or renewal application, minimum threshold criteria for eligibility, types of projects, program requirements, submission procedures and deadlines for submission. Several CoC Zoom meetings were held to ensure that potential new applicants understood the application requirements and process to apply. For those unable to attend the Zoom, applicants could access the recorded Zoom sessions on the CoC website and follow up with any questions about the competition and project applications.
3. The CoC competition announcement provided applicants details on the application process, how to submit and the deadline for doing so. The announcement was information on eligibility thresholds, project quality thresholds, funding priorities and performance measures.
4. The CoC released a staff report to the CoC partners and the Council on the Review and Ranking process for the 2021 CoC NOFO. The staff report included review, scoring and ranking procedures, the process for reallocation, the review and ranking timeline, the project priority ranking spreadsheet and the explanation on tiered ranking. The CoC Council selected a review committee, that did not have a conflict of interest, to review and rank the new and renewal projects as per the Review and Ranking process.
5. The CoC competition announcement, and the email blasts from the CoC to its partners, discussed the availability of reasonable accommodations to assist individuals/organizations in completing the application documentation. All application documentation was available in hard copy, as well as in electronic format for ease of use.

(limit 2,000 characters)

The County's DV/SA/HT service provider collects and manages demographic and service need data through Osnum, a data base comparable to HMIS, for all persons served through their organization. Catalyst assesses the needs of survivors to determine what services are desired by the survivor and to implement a safety plan that will ensure safety throughout service provision. Aggregate data, de-identified, is provided to the CoC upon request or when available for specific conversations/meetings. To ensure the protection and safety of survivors, all DV service providers use a data tracking system that is separate, but comparable, to HMIS. Survivors are provided information about services available through other public service organizations that provide trauma-informed victim's services such as Health and Human Services, the Food Bank, Behavioral Health, CoC and DOJ.

2. Emergency transfer plans align with VAWA requirements and may be provided directly to program staff via the CES staff. Catalyst staff and CoC partners work with the survivor to meet their requests for both internal and external transfers, depending on availability.

(limit 2,000 characters)

The CoC has developed a crisis response system that works most efficiently when the service providers embrace a Housing First approach. The CoC adopted Housing First for this system and annually assesses the extent to which our local programs are meeting the core elements of Housing First.

To gauge our efficiency level, the CoC utilizes HUD's Housing First Checklist to assess projects, and the overall system, for housing first practices in permanent housing. Access to programs must not be contingent upon having income, sobriety, lack of a criminal record, or other unnecessary conditions. Programs must do everything possible not to reject persons because of a lack of housing readiness. Service and treatment plans are client-driven and voluntary and persons with disabilities are offered the opportunity to request reasonable accommodations. Services are informed by a trauma informed harm-reduction model while allowing participants the flexibility in paying rent on time.

1. The CoC provided COVID-19 pandemic information to providers and unsheltered persons which included CDC resources and guidance. Pandemic information was regularly posted to the CoC website via a detected page to keep participants informed. All pandemic webinars, trainings and one-on-one meetings with Public Health were shared with CoC partners and participants. Several outreach teams sought out unsheltered and vulnerable persons and got them into a motel room through the Project Room Key Collaborative under the Non-Congregate Shelter Model to reduce the impact of COVID-19 on the unsheltered population. Although PRK has since terminated, a similar intervention has been implemented by a non-profit provider to ensure non-congregate shelter for vulnerable populations.

2. The CoC, in partnership with Public Health and the local hospital, implemented on site testing for persons who wanted to gain access to congregate emergency shelter so as not to increase the number of unsheltered person residing in non-monitored encampments. The CoC and its partners followed HUD's guidance for homeless shelters when it was consistent with our local public health guidance.

3. The CoC, in concert with Public Health, ensured that directives and guidance from the state and federal government was shared with all service providers and participants who were participating in transitional housing programs.

These partnerships have improved the internal infrastructure and readiness of the CoC to respond in times of need. The CoC also partnered with the Butte-Glenn VOAD (voluntary organizations active in disaster); a response and recovery group that is activated during disasters alongside The American Red Cross, the Salvation Army and the Office of Emergency Services. 1. The CoC coordinated intake/assessment and CES entry through 211 which ensured that there was no face to face contact and safety was adhered to
2. The CoC partnered with the United Way to implement a non-congregate shelter program (Butte United Shelter Program) similar to PRK so that vulnerable persons were not sent back to the streets or to congregate shelter when PRK funding terminated. The CoC also collaborated with Catalyst for non-congregate shelter and with the Torres Shelter for monitored day services so that the target population could maintain social distancing requirements while implementing infection control measures including quarantine. Partnering with Safe Space to provide socially distanced congregate shelter for medically fragile people who were unable to participate in PRK. ESG-CV funds also provided revenue for the PRK program for individuals that did not meet the eligibility criteria for PRK reimbursement.

NOFO Section VII.B.1.q.

Describe in the field below how your CoC identified eligible individuals and families experiencing homelessness for COVID-19 vaccination based on local protocol.

(limit 2,000 characters)

The CoC followed the instructions of the Public Health Department and their multi-phased approach which was directed by the California State Department of Public Health. Each phase had its own set of challenges, but the CoC was innovative in how it worked with public agencies to vaccination individuals and families when permission was given by the state. The first phase of vaccinations for the general public was for persons 65 or older in homeless shelters and jails. The mobile medical unit through Ampla was also vaccinating given the same state guidance. Throughout the COVID pandemic, the CoC has taken direction and guidance from Public Health and has shared that direction with its providers, advocates and target population.

The amendment addressed specific health related vulnerabilities, age, health conditions and a person's housing situation and prioritized persons for non-congregate shelter through the PRK on a temporary basis. A separate Byname list was established for those persons being served by PRK or waiting for a room through PRK.

The CoC consultant makes recommendations for Project Priority Listing to the CoC Council and all councilmembers are able to able to provide input on rating factors, review, selection and ranking process. Rating and ranking factors are determined in advance of the CoC NOFO release and are based on HUD priorities and are projects that have a track history of being successful in supporting and housing those who are homeless.
2. Butte County is not a highly diverse community when it comes to distribution of race and ethnicity; however the CoC actively recruits CoC Council members that are representative of the population to participate in the CoC and in the rating and ranking of CoC projects.
3. The CoC has not drafted rating and ranking procedures that address the promotion of racial equity across applications, services and homeless demographics.

	NOFO Section VII.B.2.f.

	Describe in the field below:
1.	your CoC's reallocation process, including how your CoC determined which projects are candidates for reallocation because they are low performing or less needed;
2.	whether your CoC identified any projects through this process during your local competition this year;
3.	whether your CoC reallocated any low performing or less needed projects during its local competition this year;
4.	why your CoC did not reallocate low performing or less needed projects during its local competition this year, if applicable; and
5.	how your CoC communicated the reallocation process to project applicants.

1. The CoC maintains a written process for re-allocation which is reviewed/updated annually. The reallocation process entails vetting all applications against the same standards and priorities set forth by HUD for the current year. A renewal project may be reallocated if it failed to meet threshold standards based on eligibility, capacity, timeline and performance standards OR a renewal project is outranked by a new project through the competitive process. CoC identified renewal projects that are identified as low-performing through project performance outcomes, may not be reallocated solely based on performance, but also on the needs of the population being served and the availability of comparable services, as well as on the opportunity for TA to improve outcomes and performance.
2. The CoC did not identify any renewal projects that would require reallocation during the 2021 CoC competition; however, the CoC did identify a technical assistance issue that has been unable to be resolved by HUD for one of the projects resulting in a lack of ability to draw down funds although the entity has been implemented the grant program since contract award.
3. No reallocation in 2021 as projects were high performing or of great need based on the scoring tool which emphasized objective performance data.
4. Not applicable
5. The CoC communicated the reallocation process via a Staff Report provided to the full CoC at a regularly schedule CoC meeting and through multiple special meetings where the CoC application process, reallocation and rating and ranking were specifically discussed. This information was also posted on the CoC website and shared through the CoC list serv.

(limit 2,000 characters)

1. The CoC has undertaken a significant process of analyzing homelessness across the county and has developed strategies to end homelessness and has established priorities for project funding. Through this process, and through the operation of PRK, the community has identified a variety of risk factors that regularly contribute to first time homelessness.
2. The CoC's strategy to address households at risk of first time homelessness is through homelessness prevention, diversion and eviction prevention programming; funds assist in keeping those at risk stably housed or to quickly access housing. The CoC, through its public partners, invests in outreach efforts to ensure that those that are precariously housed have access to resources that can help them avoid homelessness.
3. The CoC Council is the entity responsible for overseeing the CoC's strategy.

(limit 2,000 characters)

1. As a result of the 2018 Camp Fire, the 2020 North Complex Fire and the 2021 Dixie Fire, Butte County's rental vacancy rate is virtually zero. Strategies to reduce the length of time homeless or the length of time in short-term housing, become extended and quite limited. The CoC has consistently prioritize RRH projects and supports the construction of affordable housing across the continuum but the CoC is realistically looking at placing program participants in housing options that fall outside of the region.

2.	permanent housing projects retain their permanent housing or exit to permanent housing destinations.

(limit 2,000 characters)

1. Devastating wildfires have consumed a substantial portion of the County's housing stock and as a result the rental market is significantly impacted. Demand has created over-inflated rental rates, lack of availability and has impacted the ability of case managers to house persons who fall under a Fair Market Rent subsidy. Landlords and property owners now have the luxury of renting to upper middle class renters that pay their rent on time, pay an inflated price and don't have rental history or credit problems. Strategies include supporting affordable housing developments-through the No Place Like Home program; ad to continue supporting the Housing Navigator who has established rapport with landlords and brokers.

The CoC uses the HMIS/CES system and the by-name lists to identify patterns in who is returning to homeless and why (specific subpopulations, geographic concentrations, persons with severe mental illness, health challenges, etc.)

2. Strategies to reduce recidivism include tenant behavior training through the Good Tenant Training Program; comprehensive case management; meet household needs with dynamic financial assistance that aids in stabilizing housing for longer periods of time.
3. The CoC Council is the entity responsible for overseeing the CoC's strategy.

1.	how the project applicant calculated the rate of housing placement and rate of housing retention reported in question 4A-4; and
2.	the data source (e.g. comparable database, other administrative data, external data source, HMIS for non-DV projects).

(limit 1,000 characters)

1. Rate of housing placement of DV survivors was calculated by the number of persons placed in housing divided by the demand for housing (the number housed added to the number needing housing without housing available). Rate of housing retention was calculated by the number who continued in housing divided by the number placed in housing.
2. The data utilized to determine the calculation was retrieved from Osnum, the HMIS comparable database used by Catalyst Domestic Violence Services.

4A-4b.	Providing Housing to DV Survivor–Project Applicant Experience.
	NOFO Section II.B.11.

Describe in the field below how the project applicant:

1.	ensured DV survivors experiencing homelessness were assisted to quickly move into safe affordable housing;
2.	prioritized survivors—you must address the process the project applicant used, e.g., Coordinated Entry, prioritization list, CoC’s emergency transfer plan, etc.;
3.	connected survivors to supportive services; and
4.	moved clients from assisted housing to housing they could sustain—address housing stability after the housing subsidy ends.

(limit 2,000 characters)

1. DV survivors who contact Catalyst Domestic Violence Services, the County's DV housing and service provider, receive immediate crisis support and are assessed for housing and service needs. Currently, Catalyst maintains a comprehensive housing program based anchored in the housing first model that includes emergency shelter, transitional housing, and rapid rehousing programs, allowing options to meet the individual needs for survivors. However, due to the historically low vacancy rate of less than 2% coupled with a Presidentially-declared disaster that nearly eliminated a township, the housing stock has exponentially decreased and the market has become more competitive. There are few, if any, units available-none of which are affordable for our programs/participants. Those that do become available are in such demand, landlords are more likely to rent to families or college students who do not have the complications of program required inspections, corrective action, and maximum rent allowances. Tenants with a history of poor credit, poor rental history, or family violence further exacerbate the issue. While immediately moving survivors into permanent housing is always the goal, there are few options to secure temporary housing for families until more permanent options become available. Catalyst is, therefore, applying for a Joint TH-PH/RRH project, in order to rapidly house individuals and families whenever possible, and also provide a temporary safe haven to reside for up to 24 months. This allows survivors to transition into safe housing when available, as well as to participate in support plans to improve family safety, income, rental history and self-sufficiency.

4A-4c.	Ensuring DV Survivor Safety–Project Applicant Experience.
	NOFO Section II.B.11.

Describe in the field below examples of how the project applicant ensured the safety of DV survivors experiencing homelessness by:
1.	training staff on safety planning;
2.	adjusting intake space to better ensure a private conversation;
3.	conducting separate interviews/intake with each member of a couple;
4.	working with survivors to have them identify what is safe for them as it relates to scattered site units and/or rental assistance;
5.	maintaining bars on windows, fixing lights in the hallways, etc. for congregate living spaces operated by the applicant; and
6.	keeping the location confidential for dedicated units and/or congregate living spaces set-aside solely for use by survivors.

(limit 5,000 characters)

1. All staff and volunteers through Catalyst are required to complete a 40-hour mandatory training which is required by the state; safety planning is a large component of this training. Catalyst utilizes the evidence-based lethality Assessment as the basis of safety planning.

2. Confidentiality is the highest priority and is a key tenant to DV services; intakes are always complete in a private and confidential office space.

3. Intakes and assessments are completed on an individual basis; it is rare that both members of intimate partner violence seeks services simultaneously.

4. The client centered approach is a core practice and it begins at the initial intake and assessment; survivors choose the housing option that is safest for them.

5. Sheltering/housing facilities are developed and maintained to offer safety and security for those utilizing services. While there are no bars on the windows, a full security system with alarms and cameras is maintained. Entrance to the facility is only allowed through a door with a code that is regularly changed. Appropriate lighting is maintained throughout the interior and exterior of the facility. Law enforcement has Catalyst facilities on priority should they need to respond.

6. Catalyst's facility locations are all confidential. Their dedicated units and congregate living spaces are solely for the use of survivors.

4A-4c.1.	Evaluating Ability to Ensure DV Survivor Safety–Project Applicant Experience.
	NOFO Section II.B.11.

Describe in the field below how the project evaluated its ability to ensure the safety of DV survivors the project served.

(limit 2,000 characters)

Catalyst evaluates its ability to ensure the safety of it survivors the same way they do everything-by asking and listening to our program participants. Staff routinely asks for input and requests that participants complete surveys to share their thoughts on services and safety. Catalyst focuses on the major program components which each have a safety component: shelter/housing, support groups, supportive services/advocacy and counseling. Responses to surveys are input into the database and can be retrieved for reporting or when needed for funders or program improvement purposes.

4A-4d.	Trauma-Informed, Victim-Centered Approaches–Project Applicant Experience.
	NOFO Section II.B.11.

Describe in the field below examples of the project applicant’s experience in using trauma-informed, victim-centered approaches to meet needs of DV survivors in each of the following areas:

1.	prioritizing program participant choice and rapid placement and stabilization in permanent housing consistent with participants’ preferences;
2.	establishing and maintaining an environment of agency and mutual respect, e.g., the project does not use punitive interventions, ensures program participant staff interactions are based on equality and minimize power differentials;
3.	providing program participants access to information on trauma, e.g., training staff on providing program participants with information on trauma;
4.	emphasizing program participants’ strengths, e.g., strength-based coaching, questionnaires and assessment tools include strength-based measures, case plans include assessments of program participants strengths and works towards goals and aspirations;
5.	centering on cultural responsiveness and inclusivity, e.g., training on equal access, cultural competence, nondiscrimination;
6.	providing opportunities for connection for program participants, e.g., groups, mentorships, peer-to-peer, spiritual needs; and
7.	offering support for parenting, e.g., parenting classes, childcare.

(limit 5,000 characters)

1. Catalyst uses a Housing First approach. Advocates meet with participants to assess housing needs. Assessment and case management is provided with, not for, survivors. Our philosophy reflects that survivors know best what they need to keep their families safe. We work alongside them to help them attain their goals. We have agency values that include history, voice and expertise and empowerment, underscoring participant choice.

2. The move to a trauma-informed approach has meant constant flexibility and change in policies and service offerings in our programs to meet the needs of survivors. We did away with the “rules” approach a decade ago and work from mutual agreements that center on safety. Survivor centered bill of rights and grievance procedures are provided to all participants.

3. Catalyst offers group and individual counseling where participants learn and discuss specifics of trauma, how to move forward, and how to work past triggers. Staff is well-versed in trauma and assist participants in finding the support they want. Discussions around grounding, calming, or other self-care activities are common when assisting a participant to feel supported. Catalyst has groups which provide both in-house and in community that focus on Healthy Relationships and Seeking Safety curriculum, an evidence-based program addressing trauma.

4. Advocacy is centered on participants. Catalyst staff looks at the whole person, both strengths and challenges, and utilizes best practices to support and validate their decisions. Catalyst uses an active engagement model where they set goals based on their needs and help use their skills to realize their goals. Staff works with survivors to help move past challenges that allow participant growth and leaves them empowered. Staff receive training in assessment and utilize evidence-based tools from the Northwest Network.

5. Staff receive training on identifying and eliminating bias that encompasses equal access and nondiscrimination. Catalyst has a policy and “commitment to serving the needs of all survivors... regardless of ethnicity, citizenship, language, religion, physical disabilities, sexual orientation, gender identity or HIV status.” The organization recognizes the need to increase capacity with regard to equity to provide services to a variety of communities, including the Latinx and Hmong populations. Catalyst provide educational opportunities to staff. Catalyst recognizes the need to be accessible and language should not be a barrier and has a written language access plan.

6. Catalyst facilitates groups to build connections between participants. The organization offers nutrition workshops biweekly facilitated by USDA. Weekly house meeting time is a discussion of upcoming events and activities about healthy communication or self care.

7. Children’s Advocates offer support to parents, including respite childcare, healthy parenting strategies, referrals, and education of effects of trauma on children, and how their own trauma affects their parenting. A partner holds Parent Café, a way for parents to be together to learn in a facilitated way.

4A-4e.	Meeting Service Needs of DV Survivors–Project Applicant Experience.
	NOFO Section II.B.11.

Describe in the field below:

1.	supportive services the project applicant provided to domestic violence survivors experiencing homelessness while quickly moving them into permanent housing and addressing their safety needs; and
2.	provide examples of how the project applicant provided the supportive services to domestic violence survivors.

(limit 5,000 characters)

1. Having a Housing Coordinator in-house at the DV Shelter is a tactical stride to assist participants in shelter make moves to housing earlier. Traujma makes it difficult for participants to do even the easiest of tasks at times. Advocates at the shelter spend the few moths just helping participants start over and recover. With the Housing Coordinator, everyone can work in unison and those tasks that are too challenging, the Coordinator can assist with. All of this work is done with the participant's buy-in, is based on ther needs and is guided by their wishes. Catalyst helps participants in the transitional housing program maintain their housing for eighteen months and then assists in moving on to scattered sites that the participant is able to rent on their own. In the shelter, staff will help survivors move from homeless and living in a shelter to scattered sites that they rent independently through the RRH program for a period of up to 24 months. Services provided by Catalyst to support a quick move to permanent housing and to address safety needs includes case management, counseling, job readiness and legal services support (as noted below). Staff have a robust referral process with partner agencies, many formalized with Operational Agreements for services survivors need that fall outside of what Catalyst staff provide.

- Child Custody- Advocates work with participants to connect them to legal resources to assist with Child Custody cases, including the county self help clinic and an attorney who offers pro bono services in difficult cases.
- Legal Services- Catalyst has advocates on staff who help obtain temporary restraining orders; we also have an OA with Legal Service of Northern California and Community Legal Assistance Center
- Criminal History-Catalyst maintains relationships with criminal defense attorneys; including those in our office complex
- Bad Credit History- Catalyst has a funding source that can assist with debt assistance related to utilities. Catalyst assists with bad credit history through a referral to a local credit counseling program
- Education- Catalyst has 2 Child Advocates who are well-versed in the McKinney-Vento Act and are liaisons to multiple school districts
- Job Training- Catalyst assists with job readiness through case management and support
- Employment- Catalyst assists with employment services through case management; and though an OA with Butte County Department of Employment and Social Services
- Physical/Mental Healthcare- Catalyst maintains a staff of therapists (licensed and intern status with Board of Behavioral Health) to provide individual and group therapy at all our sites. Catalyst maintains OAs with Butte County Behavioral Health, social service agencies, and Enloe Medical Center
- Drug and Alcohol Treatment- Catalyst refer participants to Butte County Behavioral Health and Skyway House for services. We are able to pay for inpatient care through another funding source
- Childcare- Catalyst has secured two Child Advocates that provide childcare for participants accessing services; participants ma also be referred to Valley Oak Children's Services

2. Catalyst has a proven track record of being able to house participants quickly and efficiently dating back to our first Rapid Rehousing program starting in 2016. We had a goal of working with five households using those funds and were able to assistant more than double that projection. Most recently throughout the pandemic we were still able to house participants within 90 days of being welcomed into our Rapid Rehousing program. We have been able to report successfully to HUD for the last five years.

Through responsive crisis intervention and a trauma informed approach, Catalyst has fostered an environment with survivors that allows for a quick assessment of their housing and other related needs. Through this process, we help the survivor identify ways to increase their stability, which may include mental health support throughout counseling program, working with them to identify and obtain documents and information they need for housing applications, and addressing other specific financial needs. These supportive services happen in tandem to working with the survivor to find and secure safe housing.

4A-4f.	Trauma-Informed, Victim-Centered Approaches–New Project Implementation.
	NOFO Section II.B.11.

Provide examples in the field below of how the new project will:

1.	prioritize program participant choice and rapid placement and stabilization in permanent housing consistent with participants’ preferences;
2.	establish and maintain an environment of agency and mutual respect, e.g., the project does not use punitive interventions, ensures program participant staff interactions are based on equality and minimize power differentials;
3.	provide program participants access to information on trauma, e.g., training staff on providing program participants with information on trauma;

4B. Attachments Screen For All Application Questions

We prefer that you use PDF files, though other file types are supported. Please only use zip files if necessary.

Attachments must match the questions they are associated with.

Only upload documents responsive to the questions posed—including other material slows down the review process, which ultimately slows down the funding process.

We must be able to read the date and time on attachments requiring system-generated dates and times, (e.g., a screenshot displaying the time and date of the public posting using your desktop calendar; screenshot of a webpage that indicates date and time).

2020 CoC Program Funding

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) issued a notice to noncompetitively renew for one 12-month period existing CoC renewal projects (including Shelter Plus Care and Youth Homeless Demonstration Program (YHDP) projects), CoC planning awards, and Unified Funding Agency (UFA) Costs awards expiring during Calendar Year (CY) 2021 (between January 1, 2021 and December 31, 2021). Renewal amounts will be adjusted to

Butte Countywide Homeless Continuum of Care
2021 CoC Annual Funding Application
Review, Score, and Ranking Procedures

Adopted by CoC Council 9/15/21

HUD requires CoCs to conduct a detailed and objective review, score, and ranking process for project applications that prioritizes and funds the projects which best align with HUD priorities and performance standards. The procedures include a preliminary review of eligibility based on HUD eligibility and project quality threshold standards. Eligible applications are then reviewed and scored based on the applicant and project's ability to meet the HUD priorities established in the NOFO, based on their past performance, and the proposed project design. Applications are then ranked based on their score, and recommended to the CoC Council accordingly. With the Council's approval, the ranking determines whether applications are placed in Tier 1 or Tier 2, or in a separate DV Bonus category, as required by HUD. Applications which are not ranked and placed in either Tier 1 or Tier 2 are the CoC Planning Grant projects. A detailed description of these procedures follows below. See Review and Ranking Timeline for the 2021 Project Application key dates.

Step 1 – Approved Procedures and Documentation

Review, Score and Ranking Procedures, the Process for Reallocation, the Timeline and a Request for Proposal Instructions and Project Application (RFP/Application) are developed and distributed to CoC Council members. These documents include all HUD eligibility, screening, and prioritization requirements. The documents are presented, reviewed, amended, and approved at a public CoC Council meeting.

Step 2 – Outreach

All non-profit and public agencies are invited to submit a proposal for new project funding when there is an opportunity for reallocation of funds or new funds allocated by HUD to the Butte County CoC. An announcement of available funds, the Review, Score and Ranking Procedures, and the RFP Instructions and Project Application will be distributed to all agencies who are CoC members or who have expressed an interest in being informed of CoC activities. Individual agencies that have expressed interest in receiving CoC-program funds may also be directly contacted. The announcement of available funds will be produced in English. If desired by interested parties, the Review, Score and Ranking Procedures and the RFP/Application will also be translated into Spanish. The Review, Score and Ranking Procedures and RFP/Application will also be posted on the CoC website. An orientation session will be offered to all interested applicants, but attendance at this session is not mandatory.

Step 3 - Eligibility Threshold

Eligibility to apply will be based on each applicant's ability to complete and satisfactorily prove qualifications via the Applicant Eligibility Threshold, Project Quality Threshold, and/or Project Renewal Threshold. (See RFP/Application.)

- The Applicant Eligibility Threshold consists of eligibility criteria scored on a pass/fail basis.
- The Project Quality Threshold outlines quality requirements for both new applications, with eligibility determined by the applicants' ability to meet a minimum number of standards for new project applications. For renewal applications, a different set of standards are used, and renewal applicants are expected to meet all criteria.

Only projects meeting the minimum threshold requirements will be reviewed and ranked.

Step 4 – Project Application Ranking

All eligible projects – both new and renewal - will be reviewed and ranked together in order to strategically allocate resources to the projects that best match the HUD priorities, and to prioritize projects that have been successful in supporting and housing those who are homeless. (See Process for Reallocation.) Performance will be analyzed with the use of data – CoC APR Reports (HMIS data) or comparable data for new projects and domestic violence projects – evidencing specific outcome areas. Applicants will also need to provide narrative and documentation on policies and practices when requested. Answers will be rated on a weighted scale. For housing project applicants, the CoC will consider Rapid Return to Housing and Severity of Barriers Experienced by Program Participants, as evidenced by answers to Questions #6 and #7 in the “All Housing Applicants” section (pages 15-16) when ranking the projects (See RFP/Application). Per Question #6 in this section, the severe barriers the CoC will consider are:

- Participants with income less than $1,000 at program entry
- Participants with more than one disability type
- Participants entering the project from placed not meant for human habitation
- Participants who were chronically homeless at program entry
- Participants who were fleeing violence at program entry

The following ranking exceptions and considerations apply:

- HMIS: The Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) is a required project for the CoC, and so receives top ranking, and granted the funding amount specified in the Grant Information Worksheet (GIW), as long as the project meets the preliminary threshold standards.
- DV Bonus: If a DV Bonus project ranked in either Tier 1 or Tier 2 is selected for funding with DV Bonus funds, the project will be removed from its respective Tier and the projects below it will move up one rank position. However, if a new DV Bonus project is not selected for funding with DV bonus funds, the project will retain its ranked position within either Tier 1 or Tier 2. DV Bonus project applications, both new and renewal, will receive a unique rank number, so that HUD may fund these projects in accordance with section II.B.11.e of the NOFO.
- CoC Planning Projects are not ranked and therefore not shown in either Tier 1 or Tier 2

Completing the ranking portion of the application entails applicants demonstrating that their project aligns with the HUD policies and that evaluation measures prove the success of the program in meeting HUD goals. Applicants who believe the criteria does not offer a fair advantage based on the nature of their agency or project may indicate that in the narrative of their application and request an exception. The council will consider that request during the review, score and ranking process. Applicants will provide narrative and documentation to prove each criterion. After a comprehensive review by a neutral third party, points will be awarded accordingly. Project applications will then be ranked according to each applicant’s score and ordered from high to low score on a spreadsheet which identifies Tiers and funding levels as prescribed by HUD. Tier 1 and Tier 2 projects will be determined by which projects fall within the tiers according to their score. The number of projects funded is contingent on the annual allocation and type of projects funded as the top applicants.

Step 5 – Council Approval

Project application ranking will be recommended to the CoC Council, illustrated in an order ranking across tiers (see attached Priority Ranking Spreadsheet). The CoC Council will discuss, amend and approve ranking by majority vote. Council members representing an agency with an application may participate in discussing the applications but will recuse themselves from voting. Below are the rules and parameters the CoC Council will use in its deliberations on the Priority Ranking Spreadsheet.

1. Housing Tools provides an overview of the review and ranking criteria and process.
2. If there is an even number of CoC Councilmembers who are not Project Applicants, the non-applicant members of the CoC Council designate, by majority, a Review and Ranking Chair to represent the group and cast an additional tie-breaking vote, if necessary.
3. Housing Tools presents the recommended Project Priority Listing. CoC Councilmembers and CoC Members may pose questions to Project Applicant representatives. Project Applicant representatives do not participate in this discussion unless they are requested to respond to specific questions by CoC Councilmembers or CoC Members.
4. Any CoC Councilmember whose agency has submitted an application recuses herself or himself from voting on the application ranking. These Councilmembers will stay on the premises in case the Council needs to reconvene for further questions.
5. Councilmembers may briefly discuss the applications among themselves or ask Housing Tools criteria or process questions, if necessary. There will be no further discussion or questions with CoC membership unless all Councilmembers are present.
6. The Council votes to approve or disapprove the recommended Project Priority Listing.
7. In the event that the recommended Project Priority Listing is disapproved by a majority, Housing Tools will facilitate a decision-making process to reorder the project rankings. Any ranking must be supported by a consistent and strong rationale that adheres to the CoC Program goals and NOFA policy priorities.
8. In the event that consensus cannot be achieved for any particular ranking, a vote will be recorded, with each CoC Councilmember casting one vote. In the event of a tie, the Review and Ranking Chair will cast an additional tie-breaking vote.
9. Housing Tools records the rankings, Tier 1 or Tier 2 designations, any reallocation, and summarizes these to the full CoC Council.
10. There will be no further discussion, questions, or comment regarding the Project Priority Listing during the CoC Council Meeting after the vote is complete.
11. In the case that there is no quorum for a vote, Steps 1 through Step 6 will be followed. If the majority vote approves the Project Priority Listing, an online vote will take place within 24 hours of the meeting for all absentee non-applicant Councilmembers. If the majority vote disapproves the Project Priority Listing, Step 7 will take place, followed by an online vote for all non-applicant Councilmembers within 24 hours. Step 9 will occur through email announcement by Housing Tools to all CoC Membership, including Councilmembers and Project Applicants.

Step 6 - Notifications

All applicants will be notified of their rank order via email. Applications who do not pass threshold requirements, or whose application scores rank them below the level of available funding, will be provided an explanation of why the application was rejected. The Priority Ranking Spreadsheet will be posted on the CoC website for public review and emailed to the CoC memberships. Dated meeting minutes will be published for all meetings that pertain to the CoC's competition process and distributed to the full CoC membership.
