SUBJECT: Council Nominations and Election

The Butte Countywide Homeless Continuum of Care is beginning the process of nominating and electing new council members and officers. All CoC members may submit nominations for prospective Council Members.

- You may nominate yourself or another CoC member (current Council roster attached for your reference).
- Nominees must be willing to be nominated, so please contact the individual(s) for approval prior to submitting the nomination form. Elected council members will serve a three-year term.
- The attached form should be used for all nominations. A total of 6 Service Category representatives will be elected. A nominee may qualify for more than one service area. There is no limit to the number of nominations made.
- The individual must represent at least one service category; up to two areas may be selected. A minimum of one nominee must represent the Homeless or Formerly Homeless Service Category.
- All nominations must be received by Friday, November 1st at 5:00pm, submitted by email to buttecoc@buttecounty.net.

No nominations for local homeless coalitions (Greater Chico Homeless Task Force, Greater Oroville Homeless Coalition), nor for local jurisdictions will be taken. These are appointed positions and will be confirmed (if there are any changes) after voting for the six open slots.
